

College Day

In the Deans Meeting held on 28th January 2009 the following timings were decided upon for scheduling class meetings. It was also decided that the official lunch hour, viz, 12:00 to 1:00 be spared as far as possible. It is also important that classes be held in such a manner that Maqrib prayer is not missed.

In exceptional circumstances, such as when resource teachers are not able to attend the classes on the hour, the class start time may be altered.
