NOW THEREFORE, the Establishments agree as follows:

FACULTY: Faculty of Hospitality & Tourism Studies (FHTS)
ORGANIZATION: Holiday Inn Resort Kandooma Maldives (HIRKM)

With the intention to effectively implement nation-building strategies that encompass utilizing advanced Science and Technology and tapping on the country's talent pool; to speed up the fostering of a new generation of applied highly-skilled talents, developing and nurturing a pool of learned young adults with a strong sense of practicality, good hands-on skills and high level of organizational and business setting awareness and familiarity, FHTS and HIRKM mutually agree to work in close and cooperative partnership and in all ways possible to the best of each party's abilities to provide for such a prospect.

1. General Agreement Guidelines

In order to acclimatize to the anticipated demands of the rapid development of our society; extensively promote tourism higher education and facilitate the ability of organizations to enhance workforce quality and technological innovation, FHTS and HIRKM have agreed to join forces, collaborating to equip students with service industry knowledge, innovative competencies and the spirit of perseverance so that they ultimately become highly capable individuals. Both parties can form a lead alliance team so as to enhance relationships and improve communication, enabling a greater and all-rounded collaborative effort.

2. Roles and Responsibilities

2.1. Faculty, FHTS's Roles and Responsibilities

- 2.1.1. FHTS should, taking into consideration HIRKM, organization developmental needs and staffing schedules, discuss and come to a consensus with HIRKM on the type of students to be involved in this programme, the exact number of students and the manner of involvement. FHTS should also, in accordance with HIRKM's manpower quality requirements and individual position competency requirements, formulate a training programme and a course outline. It is in the onus of FHTS to nurture students whom will eventually be equipped with the right set of competencies desired for the internship by strictly adhering to the course agenda set out.
- 2.1.2. FHTS should, in accordance with the professional training programme and course outline requirements set out, validate a fixed internship period 6 (six) months and finalize the external training period, training scope, number of students to be involved and training requirements. FHTS should also, prior to every internship period, take initiative to contact HIRKM and assist HIRKM in preparing the exact training programme and making the necessary arrangements. There will be total of 6 (six) interns at a time.
- 2.1.3. During the internship period, FHTS should appoint a person to be responsible for the trainee. This person will be fully in charge of the trainee during the internship period, and responsibilities include, supervision, mentoring, educating the trainee on HIRKM's organizational policies and procedures and code of conduct, and proactively assisting HIRKM in solving any problems related to the internship.
- 2.1.4. FHTS should assist HIRKM in the training of management personnel, professional technical employees and transfer personnel.
- 2.1.5. In order to nurture trainees that are desired by HIRKM and it is authorized to recommend suitable technical personnel or management personnel to attend the theory lessons, internship coaching sessions, activities for preparing training materials and educational courses organized by FHTS and they should render the necessary assistance and support.

2.2. Organization, HIRKM's: Roles & Responsibilities

- 2.2.1. Based on FHTS's training capabilities and HIRKM's state of business expansion, production management scale, expected investment scopes, expansion plans and other situations, HIRKM should discuss and come to a consensus with FHTS on the type of students to be involved in this programme, the exact number of students and the manner of involvement.
- 2.2.2. HIRKM provides FHTS, the enterprise's human resources structure, position description, and the knowledge and skill levels for each position requirement. In addition, HIRKM assists FHTS to make the teaching plan and teaching outline.
- 2.2.3. HIRKM should, with reference to the mutually agreed upon training programme and taking into consideration its own current business situation, formulate a concise internship training plan and see to the necessary procedures and arrangements, which includes preparing the training grounds, providing the necessary equipment and materials, working together to aid the trainee in developing a sense of practicality and exhibiting work professionalism while on the job.
- 2.2.4. Throughout the internship training period, an experienced employee with the technical expertise should provide guidance to the trainee by keeping in mind the internship training scope and field, of which all safety guidelines and procedures should be strictly adhered to. This mentor will assess the trainee's internship performance based on fair judgment and evaluation. The HIRKM mentor will ensure the personal safety of MNU students during their internship.
- 2.2.5. HIRKM can, after negotiation with FHTS and based on the trainee quality and number requirements, recommend suitable technical personnel or management personnel to attend the theory lessons, internship coaching sessions and activities for creating training materials and educational courses organized by FHTS.

- 2.2.6. HIRKM can, based on a trainee’s internship performance and other related factors, offer an official contract of permanent employment to a graduate trainee whose participation in the programme has benefitted both parties and as a result, both parties can see the fulfillment of the underlying objectives of the internship training collaboration.
- 2.2.7. In order to sufficiently impart the necessary knowledge and fulfill the training requirements as stated in the Collaborative Internship Training Programme agreement, FHTS should elect a teacher to take part in a pseudo internship training programmed at HIRKM’s premises. HIRKM is at liability to provide the teacher with the opportunity to participate in the internship training and assist the teacher in enhancing his/her practical experience.

3. Collaboration Period

The collaboration will span 4 (four) years, commencing from (Date 2020 to Date 2024). Should any establishment wish to renew the contract, a renewal agreement should be formulated. This agreement must be revised strictly on the premise that it does and will not infringe upon the terms and conditions and underlying intent already established within this agreement.

4. Inception and Termination

- 4.1. This Collaborative Program Agreement shall take effect immediately upon its execution by the appropriate officials of each establishment. It shall remain in effect for a period of two years from the date of its execution, automatically extending on an annual basis for periods of one year unless one of the establishment serves written notice with cause on the other expressing its intention to terminate this agreement.
- 4.2. This Agreement may be terminated by either one of the establishment within 1 month’s written notice with cause or such other reasonable time as agreed to by the both parties.

IN WITNESS whereof this Collaborative agreement was duly signed for and on behalf of the Establishments on the above written day and year
