EXCHANGE AGREEMENT

between

JUSTUS LIEBIG UNIVERSITY GIESSEN (JLUG), GERMANY

Faculty 05 – Language, Literature, Culture

and

THE MALDIVES NATIONAL UNIVERSITY (MNU),

This Exchange Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the Agreement) is made by and between Justus Liebig University Giessen, Germany (hereinafter referred to as “JLUG”) and The Maldivian National University, (hereinafter referred to as “MNU”).

WHEREAS, MNU, established in 2011, is a non-profit and state-funded University in the Maldives established under The Maldives National University Act (Law No. 3/2011), with its central administration located in the capital city of Maldives, Male’.

WHEREAS, JLUG is a lawful corporation under public law and at the same time a state-owned organization, which was founded in 1607 and is dedicated to research and education. According to the “Hochschulgesetz” (§ 44 Section 1, clause 1, HessHG) its representative is the president. Its seat is Ludwigstrasse 23, 35390 Giessen, Germany.

In accordance with the request for the establishment of cooperation between the two universities Justus Liebig University Giessen and its Faculty 05 – Language, Literature, Culture and MNU agree to the following exchange agreement:

Contract conditions

Paragraph 1 – Purpose

The aim of the agreement is to promote international student exchange and closer cooperation in research and teaching as well as the development of joint projects between JLUG and MNU. The agreement forms the basis of an enhanced cooperation comprising all areas of interest and a wide range of activities in different fields.

Paragraph 2 – Goals

The cooperation between the partner institutions is planned in the following fields:

1. Exchange of teaching staff, researchers, students and/or technical staff for the planning or implementation of research and teaching projects.
2. Exchange of information about courses of study and study projects, as well as corresponding research activities and/or intentions to expand the teaching or research fields of the respective organization.
3. Exchange of scientific materials, publications, and information.
4. Deepening of scientific relations through joint symposia/summer-schools/conferences/workshops.

Exchange students will be given full registered status at the host institution, and accorded all rights and privileges commensurate with this status. It is understood that exchange students will continue as candidates for degrees at their home institution, and will not be candidates for degrees at the host institution.

Paragraph 3 – Coordinator

To ensure and facilitate the implementation of the measures of this agreement, each institution shall appoint a faculty member from the department or college participating in the exchange program to serve as its Faculty Exchange Coordinator. The Faculty Exchange Coordinator or his/her representative shall work closely with students to ensure the implementation of their proposed program of study and shall also function as the first point of contact in any matters pertaining to student discipline or in the case of an emergency.

Paragraph 4 – Implementation

Both universities agree to admit qualified students from the partner university to a course of studies. Exchange students from both institutions will be selected by the home institution and recommended to the host institution. The host institution retains the right to approve or reject the recommendation based on the students' qualifications in meeting the admission requirements at the host institution.

Paragraph 5 – Student Exchange

- a) The number of exchange students from each institution will be determined each year by mutual agreement between MNU and Justus Liebig University. The number may vary from year to year. Exchange students may study at the host institution for either a semester or a full academic year.
- b) The host institution shall assist the guests of the partner institution to the best of its ability in obtaining the respective permits (visa, research permits, etc.) that are necessary to enable the implementation of this agreement. The parties of this contract shall permit the exchange participants who are sent on the basis of this agreement to use their academic and social facilities during their stay. Both parties agree upon the exchange of information about courses of study and study projects.
- c) Students who take part in the exchange shall pay any tuition or other academic and related fees to their home university, and are exempted from such payments to the host university. Expenses for transport, residence (board and lodging), as well as health insurance in accordance with the regulations of the host country, shall be carried by the respective students. During the stay in the host country the students are obliged to have sufficient health insurance coverage.

No financial transaction will occur between partner universities.

- d) Each University will (make every reasonable effort to) ensure that university – approved housing accommodations are made available to the other's students.

Paragraph 6 – Exchange of teaching staff

- a) Both parties agree upon the exchange of academic staff, covering the following fields: Curriculum development, mutual counseling, mutual research projects.
- b) If the participating institutions agree upon a regular exchange of staff for language classes and if Justus Liebig University appoints staff to this end, the period of such employment, in the interest of a lively partnership, shall not exceed two years. MNU may recommend suitable staff for such employment.

Paragraph 7 – Liability

It shall be laid down that none of the parties of the contract enter into liability for possible loss or restrictions that arise unintentionally or by force majeure, especially because of the cancellation of working hours in administration and academic teaching.

Paragraph 8 – Changes and validity

- a) This agreement may be altered by mutual agreement in writing.
- b) This Agreement shall be effective on the last signature date and will remain in force for three (3) years from the date of its signing and may be renewed by mutual agreement after an evaluation. It may also be declared invalid by any of the parties, by means of notice in writing with the minimum period of sixty (60) days.

Student exchange programs that have already begun at the time of termination shall be carried out and supervised until the originally planned termination.

- c) In order to realize and implement the agreement, two identical copies of the contract shall be signed by the partners. One copy of each translation shall remain with each partner.

forth their mutual understanding and agreement with respect to such direct contact and the development of potential of cooperative programs.

B. Discussion and Development of Possible Collaboration

Within the fields of teaching and research to be mutually designated, both parties agree to discuss and explore the development of any of the following general forms of cooperation:

1. Joint research activities, publications by teamwork of specialists in marine sciences and oceanography;
2. Exchange of invitations to scholars for lectures, short courses on scientific and technical subjects, talks, and sharing of experience;
3. Exchange of invitations to scholars to participate in conferences, colloquia and symposia;
4. Exchange of information in fields of interest to both parties; and
5. Exchange of faculty members and students for study, teaching and research.
6. Both party to facilitate and provide logistical support (non-financial support)
7. Engage other partners and institution in both the United States (e.g., University of Notre Dame) and in the Maldives (e.g., Maldives Meteorological Service, Maldives Marine Research Institute) to further the impact of this collaboration.

C. The parties anticipate that specific collaborative projects or activities that the parties wish to implement will, as appropriate, be undertaken pursuant to future agreements entered into accordance with applicable law and the rules of each party.

D. Coordination

Each party shall appoint a coordinator to facilitate implementation of this MOU:

Email: lucrain@uw.edu

E. Continuation of All Current Policies

During the course of the discussions contemplated by this MOU, the parties will continue to operate their respective academic programs in accordance with their established policies, rules and procedures.

F. Term of MOU

This MOU shall be effective on the last signature date and shall continue in effect for a period of three (3) years thereafter unless terminated as provided for herein.

Agreement
Between

Ministry of Climate Change, Environment and Energy
Republic of Maldives

and

The Maldives National University
Republic of Maldives

to

Provide Sponsorship for Advance Certificate in Environmental Management Course

at Laamu Gamu Campus

26 February 2024

This Agreement is made on 26th February 2024 by and between the Ministry of Climate Change, Environment and Energy, Republic of Maldives (hereinafter referred to as “MCCEE”) and The Maldives National University (hereinafter referred to as “MNU”).

Herein after referred to singularly as “the Party” and collectively as “the Parties”.

1. BACKGROUND

The Government of the Republic of Maldives, through the Ministry of Climate Change, Environment and Energy, is implementing the Enhancing National Development through Environmentally Resilient Islands (ENDhERI) project. This project, financed by the Global Environment Facility (GEF) and assisted by the United Nations Environment Program (UNEP), aims to enhance reef protection, resilience, and ecosystem recovery in selected project sites of the Maldives. This initiative is designed for replication nationally through public awareness and integrating the values of marine biodiversity and other natural capital.

Among the objectives of the ENDhERI project is the development of human capital in the field of environment, biodiversity conservation, and its management in Laamu Atoll. The Maldives National University's Gan campus, situated on Gan Island, conducts environmental courses in the atoll. The objective is to nurture human capital within the atoll, aiming to establish environmental awareness and a community dedicated to the preservation of the environment.

2. MAIN OBJECTIVE

The Parties acknowledge the benefits of increased collaboration, cooperation, and interaction in offering environmental courses to Laamu atoll students. The primary objective of this Agreement is to sponsor the academic course of an Advance Certificate in Environmental Management at Laamu Gan MNU Campus. The Parties aspire to work together for their mutual benefit by:

- 2.1. Providing the entry requirements for the Environmental Management undergraduate course of study approved by MQA at MNQF levels 5, 6, and 7.
- 2.2. Increasing human capital in the field of Environment, biodiversity conservation, and its management in Laamu Atoll.
- 2.3. Contributing to the implementation of environmental policies to protect Laamu atoll's natural environment.
- 2.4. Establishing awareness and commitment in Laamu atoll for a sustainably maintained and protected environment.
- 2.5. Enabling ease in research and other fieldwork related to environmental studies in Laamu atoll.

3. WORK SCOPE

3.1. Throughout this course, students will gain knowledge, expertise, and experience in various conservation and ecological projects, including mapping and biodiversity projects, inspecting and monitoring environmentally sensitive ecosystems, plant and animal management, flora and fauna identification, recognizing geological landforms and samples, ecosystem site inspections, developing interpretive activities, researching environmental issues, and maintaining industry work health and safety processes.

3.2. Upon completion of this course, students would be able to:

- a) Conduct basic environmental supervisory tasks.
- b) Obtain data and construct basic charts and tables from available data.
- c) Produce simple resource maps of habitats.
- d) Conduct community mobilization and environmental sensitization activities.
- e) Formulate basic tools to manage protected areas and nature parks.
- f) Communicate conservation goals for local environmental protection and preservation.
- g) Design simple environmental monitoring and safeguard plans.

3.3. Interested and eligible participants from Laamu Atoll will participate in this course (details of the course structure in Annex 1).

4. FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENT

The financial arrangements to cover expenses undertaken within the framework of this Agreement shall be mutually agreed upon by the respective Parties subject to the availability of funds. Upon reaching a mutual Agreement by the Parties, in respect of such matters, the terms as agreed, shall become an integral part of this Agreement.

5. AMENDMENTS AND TERMINATION

5.1. This Agreement will come into effect on the date of signature and remain in effect for Sixteen (16) months.

5.2. Either Party may terminate this Agreement by providing written notification to the other Party three (3) months in advance.

5.3. The termination of this Agreement will not affect the completion of any cooperation activity which has been formalized while it was in force.

5.4. This Agreement may be amended by the mutual Agreement of the Parties, formalized by an exchange of written communications, specifying the date of its entry into force of such amendment.

5.5. This Agreement is a statement of the intent of the Parties. Each Party's implementation of this Memorandum shall be consistent with the domestic law.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

Neither party will disclose to any Third Party any information concerning the activities related to this Agreement including any joint reports, and/or other information or documents produced during the course of implementing any activities, without the written consent of the other party.

7. SETTLEMENT AND DISPUTES

Any dispute about the interpretation or implementation of this Memorandum will be solved through consultations between the Parties, who will work in good faith to resolve differences by mutual Agreement. Where dispute has not been mutually resolved, the Parties may seek to resolve the matter through legal recourse through court proceedings.

Course Structure in ANNEX 1.

Responsibilities of all parties are provided in ANNEX 2.

Workplan Schedule in ANNEX 3.

Estimated budget of expense provided by MECCT in ANNEX 4.

Payment Schedule in ANNEX 5.

Stipend Rate by Ministry of Higher Education in ANNEX 6.
